Monthly source for news and information for MVWC members

President's Message

Happy February!!

February is my favorite month! Pink hearts make me happy and it's the promise of Spring and all things pretty. Plus, it's my birthday month – although I discovered that my REAL birthday is in March and I'm technically two weeks younger. I told my husband I have TWO birthday months to celebrate, hahaha!! I don't know why he doesn't agree.

It's hard to believe we are halfway through our year and I'm so thankful for what a fantastic year it's been so far! If you were at the luncheon, I hope you took advantage of the amazing baked goods that were on display. And what a wonderful time acknowledging all our Past Presidents who have set the foundation for our fantastic club. Next month's luncheon will be at the North Mountain Visitor Center and we have a special theatrical presentation. Plus, if anyone wants to hike beforehand, Becky Colbert will be leading a group. Please let Becky know if you plan to hike before the luncheon by March 11th: (Bcolb41@aol.com). We need at least 6 people to participate.

April will be our yearly basket auction & then our evening May event will close out the year. Thank you to all who have been so supportive of the Board as we work hard to bring you great speakers and luncheon locations. And speaking of which, we have openings next year for our Programs/Daytime Events. This year's committee has been stellar and we already have locations in place for next year. Let me know if you are interested in joining our leadership. We need more wonderful volunteers to continue to make our club great.

Warmly,

Koni Gould

President
2024-2025

Matinee Friends

Submitted by Carol Janoff

Well, color us amazed! The seven Matinee Friends who attended the Spotlight Youth Theatre presentation of "Hadestown" on Sunday, Jan. 19 were very impressed with every facet of the production. The direction was perfect, the choreography was advanced and perfectly executed, the costumes were beautifully made and enhanced the characterizations, the set was appropriately grimy and dark and atmospheric, and the teen musicians provided support for the sung-through show. The tall young man playing Hades had the most piercing eyes and the deepest voice we had ever heard; he was very spooky and made a perfect Hades. We were stunned to learn all the actors were 19 or younger; they would be accepted on any stage in the valley! "Hadestown" was nominated for 14 Tony awards in 2019, and won eight, including Best Musical. The musical combines two classic Greek myths of love and heartbreak: Orpheus and Eurydice, and Hades and Persephone. It reimagines them in a gritty, industrial setting scored with jazz and folk music. "Hadestown" was presented at Gammage in 2022 and I was very disappointed to miss it there. But It is hard for me to believe that the traveling Broadway version could have been much better than this one we so enjoyed at the little storefront theater in Peoria!

Museum & Special Events Group

Submitted by Jackie Gentner

The Museum and Special Events Group toured the Lavender Farm and Historic Mansion at Chateau de Vie in Chandler, AZ on Friday, January 10th. We had a large number of attendees (25 attendees) for this event. We actually split the group up for lunch at two different restaurants, because no one had accommodations for such a large group. The Chateau de Vie is a luxury estate of timeless elegance and charm. The Chateau was dreamed and constructed in 1984 by Phil and Billy Lee Erickson. The family made their money and living through their framing contracting business, which is still in business today. The estate features elegant stained glass, ornate wood carvings, and stunning murals. The mansion is approximately 15,000 square ft on 10 1/2 acres. The never ending and ongoing maintenance brought the owners to part with mansion in 2002. By 2010, the property had fallen into disrepair. Shelly and Nick Goodman rescued the property and brought it out of foreclosure in 2010. The Goodmans have made numerous restoration efforts to bring the mansion to its original beautiful and exquisite showplace. This was an awesome experience and everyone was pleased with tour and history.

Painting Group

Submitted by Maripat Kudray-Flores

The painting and drawing group held their first get-together for the new year at OHSO (due to late cold weather). The food was good. Their long tables were great to work on and there was a friendly, laid back vibe, so no need to rush. This makes the Tatum and Shea location a favorite place to meet. Try their white sangria it was delicious, it's light and fruit but not too sweet. We will try to go to Saguaro Farm next time. Starting in February, we will go back to meeting the first Thursday of the month.

If you are interested in joining us, contact Maripat.

Even More Activity Group Reports

Daytime Bunco Squad

The Bunco Squad celebrated an early Valentine's Day with games at the Moon Valley Grill in January. June decorated the tables so nicely and had little surprises to give away during the fun. Chrissy was our big winner with the most Buncos (AGAIN!!)

Mah Jongg

Boot Scootin' Midnight Mixer

Submitted by Kathy Moffitt

Thank you to all our amazing members (& somewhat reluctant guests who secretly had a blast) who joined us for a FANTASTIC Line Dancing event at Foley Ranch! We had an incredible time, filled with fun, laughter, and some incredible dance moves.

Moon Valley Women’s Garden Group

Submitted by Jackie Gentner

The MVWC Garden Group visited Moon Valley Nursery on January 30th. We had a guided tour of the nursery by Brandon, who was very welcoming and knowledgeable of the many varieties of plants, trees, shrubs and services that Moon Valley Nursery provides. During our tour Brandon also answered many questions from our group members on gardening such as types of plants that will grow well in our Arizona climate, watering instructions, soil, plant nutrients, and of course their very own Moon Juice, that is a miracle for helping any plant grow and keep healthy. It was really nice to visit this nursery, as it is located right in our Moon Valley neighborhood. After our visit we went to lunch at Bear and the Honey, which was fantastic. Great service and scrumptious food.

Classy Cooks

Submitted by Karen Zanzucchi

Classy Cooks had a delicious, colorful brunch on February 5, 2025 hosted by Betsy Ingram and Margy Simcheck at Margie’s lovely home overlooking beautiful Moon Valley. It was a colorful brunch where good food met great cooking. Between sips of mimosas and bites of vibrant, eye-catching dishes that looked as good as they tasted with French toast casserole, egg dishes, muffins, and a fruit compote to name a few.

Brunch is one of those magical moments where time seems to slow down...its not just about the food; it was definitely a celebration of creativity, friendship, conversations, laughter and the shared joy of creating something special together.

The joy of cooking and sharing food is timeless—and, of course, a little bit of color never hurts.

Moderate Hiking Group

Submitted by Becky Colbert

The moderate Hiking Group did a fun, but challenging hike at South Mountain in January. We started off with some chilly weather, but it warmed up enough to enjoy an outdoor lunch at the Farm at South Mountain

Restaurant Review

Submitted by Maripat Kudray-Flores

The restaurant review group meet at Bear and Honey for brunch. Everyone had a good time. Our only complaint was the menu was small and didn't have everything listed. I wished I had seen the special chalkboard at the beginning. I would have ordered differently. I will have to go back to try green chile. The coffee and pastries were the highlights. They gave us cinnamon rolls to taste for dessert. The crescent was the best I have ever tasted. Most of us had egg dishes where you can add protein. The steak and egg burrito is another dish I need to go back and try. The chori-zo was good, it had nice favor and was not salty. Dishes are served on fajita cast iron plates. It's nice having a small home town restaurant nearby. They have happy hour too.

Go check out it's much better, new location next to the dollar store.

The baking group meet recently at Sheila's house. She decorated her table with African linens from one of her exciting trips. It was a small group, several members were sick. All great bakers are welcome!
